AUTHORS CHAPTER OF RECENTLY PUBLISHED
BOOK, DOMESTIC AND INTERNATIONAL LITIGATION STRATEGIES

BOSTON, MA – PETER BENNETT, President of The Bennett Law Firm in Portland, Maine, has been recognized as a leader in litigation by being selected as an author in the recently released book, Domestic and International Litigation Strategies: Leading Lawyers on Trial Preparation, Risk Assessment, and Best Practices for Prosecution and Defense, published by Aspatore Books.

Peter Bennett is featured in the book alongside fellow elite practitioners from some of the nation's leading law firms, who collectively share their expertise of representing clients in a variety of litigation matters. Bennett's contribution to the book, entitled "Adding Real Value for the Client", discusses the issues, obstacles and potential pitfalls that can befall today's litigators, and then details effective strategies for overcoming them. Bennett draws extensively from his vast professional experiences and reveals creative ways that litigators can increase both efficiency and value for their clients, and the keys for successful outcomes and satisfied clients.

Peter Bennett specializes in representing management on issues of employment and labor law throughout New England. He is a graduate of Harvard University, and received his M.B.A. and law degree from Boston University, where he serves on the Law School's Executive Committee. Bennett is a Director of the International Society of Primerus Law Firms, and is currently serving as Chair-Elect of the 36,000 member Tort, Trial and Insurance Practice Section of the American Bar Association.

Bennett, his wife Sandy and their daughter Haley reside in Cumberland Foreside, Maine. For complete biographical information, please visit The Bennett Law Firm's web page at www.thebennettlawfirm.com.
