

Peter Bennett to Speak at the Nevada Limited Jurisdiction Judges 2014 Winter Seminar

Peter Bennett to speak on “Judicial Independence: The Importance of Fair and Impartial Courts” at the 2014 Winter Seminar

Portland, Maine (PRWEB) January 27, 2014 -- The Bennett Law Firm, P.A. is pleased to announce that Peter Bennett will be speaking on “Judicial Independence: The Importance of Fair and Impartial Courts” at the 2014 Nevada Limited Jurisdiction Judges Winter Seminar. The seminar, held at the Aliante Casino & Hotel in North Las Vegas, Nevada, runs from January 28-31, 2014.

Attorney Bennett, along with Attorney Nicole VanderDoes, a staff attorney with the American Bar Association, will speak on Thursday, January 30th, from 8:30 - 9:30 am about the challenges facing the judicial branch, including why fair and impartial courts matter. This interactive discussion will include strategies for responding to the many challenges facing our courts, including how to communicate effectively with the public and policymakers.

“It has been an honor to be able to work with the nation’s judiciary to educate them on how to respond to inappropriate attacks on the judiciary’s role as a fair and impartial arbiter of disputes. Unfortunately, the strident political debate that continues to divide our nation has crept into our courts in ways that were never imagined,” stated Peter Bennett.

Peter Bennett, who is nationally recognized as a leader representing management in the field of labor and employment law, is a member of the International Society of Primerus Law Firms. He is very active in the American Bar Association, where he currently serves as Chair of their Standing Committee on Judicial Independence, and is a past Chair of the Association’s 24,500 member Tort, Trial and Insurance Practice Section.

About The Bennett Law Firm

The law offices of The Bennett Law Firm have been located in Portland, Maine for over 50 years. Herbert H. Bennett, the firm’s namesake and nationally prominent trial lawyer whose practice focused on representing management on issues of labor and employment law, founded this firm. Throughout the years, this law firm has remained relatively small by design and it continues to provide highly specialized legal services to a broad client base. Located in Portland, Maine, the firm’s client base stretches throughout New England. The firm offers experienced legal guidance in aggressively avoiding unionization, and is also at the forefront in developing preventative policies and procedures, training, avoiding and, if necessary, resolving employment disputes (including alternative dispute resolution), negotiating collective bargaining agreements, arbitration and defending litigation arising from employment disputes.

In addition to the firm’s labor and employment practices, it handles complex litigation, alcohol licensing and civil litigation, and focuses on resolving complex legal matters that confront both businesses and individuals daily.

The Bennett Law Firm is a member of the International Society of Primerus Law Firms.
